

Nicole Knisley

Project Consultant

Email: nknisley@tpma-inc.com

LinkedIn: <http://www.linkedin.com/in/nknisley>

Office: 317-894-5508

Professional Qualifications

Nicole Knisley joined Thomas P. Miller and Associates in 2011 as a project consultant specializing in research, composition, and data analysis.

Previous Experience

- Research and Information Coordinator, Indy Partnership
- Program Development Coordinator, American Legion Auxiliary

Selected Project Experience

- Indy Partnership, IN. Supervised Chinese foreign direct investment study and a human capital clusters study
- Duke Energy, IN. Conducted manufacturing supply chain gap analysis and authored business retention and expansion innovative incentives report
- Caldwell Van Riper and the Indianapolis Airport Authority, IN. Conducted site selection factors study
- American Legion Auxiliary, conducted national survey of capacity and needs of the veterans service sector, designed and built online "Gateway to Services" strategic information portal, created new program to address effects of military deployment on families, and presented original research at national veterans service conference
- Bose Public Affairs Group, IN. Organized and maintained legislative tracking system
- Indianapolis Department of Metropolitan Development, IN. Authored study of abandoned housing issues

Education

- M.P.A. Candidate, Nonprofit Management, Indiana University School of Public and Environmental Affairs in Indianapolis.
- Pursuing a graduate certificate in social entrepreneurship, Indiana University School of Public and Environmental Affairs in Indianapolis.
- B.S., Public Affairs with highest distinction, Indiana University School of Public and Environmental Affairs in Indianapolis